

The Charitable Trust of the Canadian Federation of University Women Aurora/Newmarket (The Trust) is a Charitable Trust registered with Canada Revenue Agency. It is the Charitable Trust of the Canadian Federation of University Women Aurora/Newmarket which exists at arm's length from The Canadian Federation of University Women Aurora/Newmarket (The Club). The sole purpose of The Trust is The Advancement of Education.

The Trust was established in 2015 to allow for an expansion of the award system established by The Club and to allow for charitable receipts to be given to donors.

Our Awards

- Secondary School Awards: There are six awards given out annually to graduating secondary school students from schools in northern York Region. Two awards of $1500 are given to eligible students who attend one of five schools in the York Catholic District School Board. Four awards of $1500 are given to eligible students who attend one of the ten schools in the York Region District School Board.
- Indigenous Student Award: One award of $1500 is given to an Indigenous student attending Sutton District High School who is pursuing post-secondary education (university, college or apprenticeship program)
- Children's Aid Society Award: One award of $1500 is given to a former Crown ward of the York Region Children's Aid Society (York CAS) who is currently receiving service from York CAS and transitioning out of CAS care in the coming year. 1 award given to a student who is transitioning from the care of C.A.S.
- Seneca College: This $1,000 award is to be presented to a mature female student who is enrolled in any diploma program of the King Campus of Seneca College and will benefit from assistance.
- Mary Pegg Education Award: As well, the Charitable Trust facilitates the awarding of the Mary Pegg Education Award. The family of a long-standing member, Mary Pegg, who passed away in March 2014, has established an award in her memory. Funding will be provided for up to a four year scholarship to be presented every year to one candidate for each year until 2026.
- The CFUW Aurora/Newmarket Bursary in Memory of Barbara Langstaff: An endowment established at York University in memory of a founding member of CFUW Aurora/Newmarket who died in 1992. This bursary is awarded to a mature female student who has returned to school; is a resident of York Region; and is enrolled in a degree program at York University. The 2019 Award was $1240. The amount varies each year. Application may be made through the Division of Advancement, York University, 4700 Keele Street, Toronto.

Eligibility and Criteria for the Awards

Students must:

- be a Canadian citizen or permanent resident of Canada
- have proof of acceptance at a university, college or apprenticeship program for the next school year
- have demonstrated a positive attitude and good work ethic
- have contributed to home, school, or community life in a positive way.

Special consideration may be given to students who have overcome challenges to graduate.

Disbursement of Awards

- The funds are to be transferred to the institution upon enrollment at the student's chosen academic institution.
- The Trust must ensure a procedure in place to ensure recipient student is enrolled and attending a post-secondary institution at time of disbursement.
